About UNCF

UNCF is America's largest and most effective minority education organization.

To help students get the education they need, and that the nation needs them to have:

- UNCF provides financial support that benefits more than 60,000 students at 37 historically black colleges and universities
- UNCF awards 10,000 scholarships and internships each year under 400 programs to students at 1,100 colleges and universities across the country
- UNCF serves as a national advocate for the importance of education and college readiness

Contributions from more than 100,000 corporations, foundations and individuals each year support UNCF's work and make it possible to live up to the ideal expressed in UNCF's famous motto, "A mind is a terrible thing to waste."[®]
